Dear ESAM Members,

I would like to announce my candidacy for a position of ESAM Executive Committee (EC). I am a Chair of the Croatian Society of Aerospace Medicine. I am an Ophthalmologist at the General hospital Zadar, Croatia and professor at University of Zadar in area of biomedicine and health, field of clinical medicine science, branch of ophthalmology.

As an ophthalmologist, I was part of the working group that dealt with the drafting of regulations for aviation personnel.

For years, I have been a lecturer at the Postgraduate course in Ophthalmology at the Faculty of Medicine, University of Zagreb, where I teach topics from the field of aviation as part of Occupational Ophthalmology.

I also participated as a lecturer in the training for renewing knowledge in aviation medicine organized by the Croatian Civil Aviation Agency.

Since 1996, lecturer at aviation medicine courses according to the AMC program, FCL 3.090 (JAR-FCL 3.090) in the Republic of Croatia and abroad, organized by the Croatian Civil Aviation Agency.

Since 1996, leader and regular lecturer at aviation medicine courses according to the AMC program, FCL 3.090 (JAR-FCL 3.090) in the Croatia and abroad, organized by the Croatian Civil Aviation Agency

My candidacy was inspired by a excellent colaboration with the ESAM Ophthalmology working group since 2020.

If elected I will work on the support and further devolopment of ESAM.

Thank you for considering my candidacy for the position.

Yours faithfully,

Suzana Konjevoda
